

JODI LAZAR

DIVORCE & FAMILY LAW ATTORNEY

ABOUT JODI

An experienced attorney with over 30 years in the field, Jodi founded her Austin law firm in 2004 to make a meaningful impact on people's lives. A 1988 graduate of the University of Texas School of Law, Jodi was also an Adjunct Professor.

Originally a civil litigation attorney in state and federal courts, Jodi shifted to family law to help clients navigate change, emphasizing fair resolution through litigation or mediation. This transition highlights her deep understanding of the personal side of legal issues.

Not only is Jodi Lazar an accomplished attorney, but she is also an active public speaker and guest lecturer on various family law topics. Her boutique firm, Lazar Law in Austin, Texas, is dedicated exclusively to family law and operates using a hybrid work model to serve clients across central Texas.

INTERVIEW TOPICS

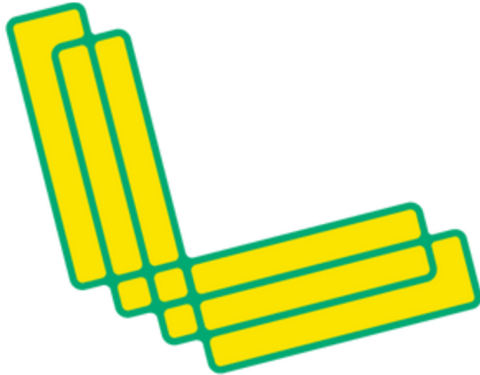

MEDIATION AS A COST-EFFECTIVE AND TIME-EFFICIENT SOLUTION

Mediation offers a more cost-effective, quicker alternative to traditional court trials, helping families resolve disputes with less financial strain. It also reduces the emotional toll by fostering clear communication and allowing parents to make decisions confidently for their children.

- Cost Reduction: Mediation typically costs less than traditional court trials, saving families significant expenses.
- Faster Resolution: Mediation speeds up the process, helping families move on and regain stability more quickly.
- Minimized Emotional Toll: Mediation reduces stress, allowing parents to communicate confidently and lessen the burden on their children.

TESTIMONIALS

"Going through a divorce is never easy. Working with Jodi and her team at Lazar Law made the process that much more palatable. Even though it took longer than it should have, due to things out of our control, I always felt like we were driving it toward completion. They were very professional and responsive, and I'd highly recommend them to anyone going through this difficult process.'

— Daniel N.

"Jodi Lazar and her team were effective and well-organized in helping me modify my divorce decree in regards to my three young children. She took time to thoroughly understand my case, provide me with clear and accurate advice and then ensure that my children's needs were met at all times. My only regret was that I had not chosen Jodi to originally represent me as her expertise and tenacity were evident from the start. I'm ever thankful for her work and dedication to my children's case."
